This office is required, by law, to maintain the privacy and security of your Protected Health Information. We must provide you with written notice concerning your rights to your health information, and the potential circumstances under which, by law, or as dictated by our office policy, we are permitted to use and disclose information about you to a third party without your authorization. Below is a brief summary of these circumstances. If you would like a more detailed explanation, one will be provided to you. Please review carefully, sign receipt of acknowledgement, and return to our front desk staff. Keep this page for your records.

YOUR RIGHTS:

1. To inspect or obtain a copy of your records within 15 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee for a copy. X-rays are original records, and you are therefore not entitled to them. If you would like us to outsource them to have copies made, we will be happy to accommodate you. However, you will be responsible for this cost.
2. To ask for amendments to your health information you think is incomplete or incorrect. We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.
3. To request confidential communications (contact you in a specific way or send mail to a different address).
4. To request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures, and with whom we release information to, although we are not required to comply. If we do agree, the restriction is in place until receiving written notice of your intent to remove the restriction.
5. To receive an accounting of disclosures (those with whom we’ve shared your information).
6. To receive a paper copy of the extended detail Notice of Privacy Practices.
7. To choose someone to act for you. If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
8. To file a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

USES AND DISCLOSURES:

1. Treatment purposes - use your health information and share it with other health care providers who are treating you.
2. Run our organization - use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.
3. Bill for your services - use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.
4. Inadvertent disclosures – an open treating area means open discussion. If you need to speak privately with the doctor, please let our staff know so we can place you in a private room.
5. Help with public health and safety issues - in order to prevent or lessen a serious or eminent threat to the health or safety of a person or general public.
6. For health research purposes.
7. Comply with the law - share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we’re complying with federal privacy law.
8. Work with a medical examiner or funeral director - share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director in the event of a patient’s death.
9. For workers’ compensation claims, law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official, and other government requests – including health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law, special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services.
10. Respond to lawsuits and legal actions - share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.
11. Emergency – in the event of a medical emergency we may notify a family member.
12. Phone calls and/or emails – we may call your home and leave messages regarding appointment reminders or apprise you of changes in practice hours or upcoming events.
13. Change of ownership - in the event this practice is sold your health information will become the property of the new owner. You maintain the right to request copies of your health information be transferred to another provider.

To the extent that we have your substance use disorder patient records, subject to 42 CFR part 2, we will not share that information for investigations or legal proceedings against you without (1) your written consent or (2) a court order and a subpoena.

COMPLAINT:

If you wish to make a complaint about how we handle your health information, please contact our privacy official using the information noted above. If you are still not satisfied with the manner in which this office handles your complaint, you can submit a formal complaint to:

Cherry City Chiropractic Informed Consent

REGARDING: Chiropractic Adjustments, Modalities, and Therapeutic Procedures:

I have been advised that chiropractic care, like all forms of health care, holds certain risks. While the risks are most often minimal, complications such as sprain/strain injuries, irritation of a disc condition, dislocations of joints, and although very rare, fractures, and possible stroke (estimated to be related in one in one million to one in two million cervical adjustments), have been associated with chiropractic adjustments.

Treatment objectives, as well as the risks associated with chiropractic adjustments and all other procedures provided at Cherry City Chiropractic have been explained to me to my satisfaction and I have conveyed my understanding of both to the doctor. After careful consideration, I do hereby consent to treatment by any means, method, and or techniques, the doctor deems necessary to treat my condition at any time throughout the entire clinical course of my care.
